INTERFIT – TWO NEW EX150 MARK II KITS WITH INSTRUSTIONAL DVD

Interfit, one of the leading manufacturers of photographic lighting is pleased to announce the arrival of the successor, to the multiple Award winning EX150 kit. Interfit Lighting is the preferred educational tools in many learning establishments around the world, chosen for their simple and ease of use.

The EX150 Mark II will be available in two highly specified kits, both available with a new educational training DVD especially commissioned to show just how easy studio lighting can be for first time or advanced users. The DVD is feature packed and includes many professional tips on getting the best results from the kits and setting up your camera for use with studio lighting for portrait and fashion photography.

The Two head EX150 Mark II kit includes: 2 air-cushioned lighting stands, 2 EX150 MKII heads, 1 translucent umbrella, 1 60cm (24”) softbox and all cables.

In addition to the above kit the new, Three head kit includes a newly developed background cloth and “easy to use hook support system”. It also includes a 3rd EX150 head and lighting stand to provide the background illumination and a snoot for illuminating the background, and the addition of an all in one carry case for storage and transportation.

The new EX150 Mark II benefits from improved performance, when compared to its predecessor whilst still utilising the dedicated accessories of the Interfit EX range.

Available with immediate effect from Interfit Main Dealers starting at £249.99 Inc vat for the two head kit INT182, and £429.99 Inc vat for the three head kit INT183.

Further information will be available on the Interfit Website shortly.
